State Attorney R.J. Larizza Headed to Orange City

ORANGE CITY, Fla.— State Attorney R.J. Larizza will be in Orange City Wednesday, November 16, 2011, as a guest speaker at the City's Community Watch Group Meeting. The State Attorney will be speaking on the role his office plays in the prosecution of criminal offenders and will also address questions and concerns from the audience.

R.J. Larizza is the State Attorney for the Seventh Judicial Circuit—which consists of Flagler, Putnam, St. Johns and Volusia counties. He serves as the prosecutor, representing the people in criminal courts throughout the circuit. His office plays a vital role in providing direction and leadership to the Criminal Justice System in the Seventh Judicial Circuit.

Community Watch Group Meetings are open to the public. They were started by the Orange City Police Department as an informal way for the area to make neighborhoods safer and improve the quality of life. Meetings are held every third Wednesday of the month at the City's Council Chambers—located at 201 North Holly Ave—from 6:00 to 8:00p.m. Light refreshments will be served. For more information contact Greg Lariscy at 386-851-7555 or glariscy@ourorangecity.com.
